About the Presenter:

Nathan Ory, M.S., Registered Psychologist

A psychologist registered in B.C., Nathan Ory has 37 years of clinical experience working in inter-disciplinary settings for children and adults with developmental disabilities and emotional/behavior disorders. He has specialized in supporting individuals with fetal alcohol spectrum disorder, extremely challenging behavior, and/or diagnosis with a concurrent mental illness.

Nathan is an international speaker and has published the second edition of his book, Working with People with Challenging Behaviors: A Guide to Maintaining Positive Relationships (2007).

Nathan contributes articles to the web site www.fasdconnections.ca, www.autismtoday.com and has short video training topics posted at www.fasdoutreach.ca, eLearning modules (Creating a Positive Behavior Climate).

This conference incorporates new materials that are particularly relevant to educators, psychologists, child welfare workers, parents/caregivers, group home staff, probation and criminal justice workers, and other professionals working with individuals with challenging behaviors.
